

Library System - Login Process

This process will validate username and password credentials. A user will be blocked after three unsuccessful login attempts. This process will return false for unsuccessful logins. For successful logins, this process will return the user name (userN), user's nickname (userH) and details of books borrowed, ordered and history (books) from the users dictionary.

